

13.0 CONSULTING

13.1 When appropriate to provide leadership in education and when the Superintendent of Schools determines there will be no adverse impact on the School District, the Superintendent of Schools may authorize justifiable absences of administrative employees to provide consulting or similar services to educational or related entities. Such leave shall be without pay unless otherwise determined by the Superintendent of Schools. Nothing herein shall prevent an administrator from using personal and/or annual leave for such purposes, independent of this subsection.
